

LA Galaxy Vs. Metro Stars

Wednesday, June 23rd

The crowd waits anxiously for the results of the coin toss to signal the start of the game. Thanks to CHP Commander Sherrell Sutherland for the perfect "flip!"

A young Galaxy fan tries his luck with an OTS scratcher about bicycle safety. Looks like this little guy never rides his bike without his helmet--way to go!

Larry is surrounded by a group of excited soccer fans at the Home Depot Center, home of the LA Galaxy. Fans of all ages were thrilled to get an OTS tattoo, glo-keychain or tic-tac-toe board from the Crash Test Dummies.

CHiPper, the Crash Test Dummies, CHP Commander Sherrell Sutherland and members of the LA Galaxy are all smiles before the game gets underway against the Metro Stars. Go Galaxy!

"Are there seatbelts on spaceships?" Vince and Larry get their questions answered by Cozmo, the "out of this world" mascot for the LA Galaxy.

A perfect combo: The Crash Test Dummies and their friends from the California Highway Patrol stick together to remind everyone to always buckle up, no exceptions!
